

Junior Women Appear on TV Program

The Junior Women's club of Torrance was well represented last week on Bill Leyden's new TV program, "It Could Be You," when 39 members of the club attended en masse.

Unknown to her, a surprise was planned for Mrs. C. Albert Smith with her sister, Mrs. Durwood Dunham, who was flown to Los Angeles from Bristol, Penn., by the program. The sisters had not seen each other in four years.

Other club members participating in the program were: Mrs. Sid Gans, C. A. Hofferber, Miss Gerry Wood; Mrs. George Stevens, Robert Stewart and James Lees.

A double-ring ceremony solemnized by Miss Loretta Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Page, to Lawrence David Gremminger, son of Mrs. Lela Gremminger, last week at the Nativity Catholic church. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a ballerina length white lace, with Patty Lou Hines became the bride of James Edward Baratti in a solemn double-ring ceremony at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Nativity Catholic church. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Hines, 20700 Raymond ave., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony D. Baratti, of Los Angeles.

The radiant bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of imported chantilly lace and white satin. The sheath dress, of cocktail length, was covered by a floor length, chantilly lace redingote in white with a mandarin collar and long fitted sleeves. The finger-tip length veil, of silk bridal illusion, was held in place with a small crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis, carnations and orchids.

Attending the bride as maid of honor, Miss Toni Siminski wore a coral satin sheath dress with net overskirt, and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow gladioli. Bridesmaids, Mrs. John Baratti, Miss Pamela Berger and Mrs. Thomas Labins, were all gowned alike in turquoise satin sheath gowns with net overskirts, carrying cascade bouquet of coral gladioli.

Delila Christensen, the little flower girl, wore a yellow nylon dress, and carried a yellow nosegay. The bride's mother, Mrs. John Hines, was charming in a light blue, street-length lace dress with matching accessories and a pink rose corsage, as was the bridegroom's mother, dressed in orchid lace with matching accessories and corsage.

man, and ushers were John Baratti, Jerry Charlson and Robert Baratti. Father Calvin Morrissey officiated at the marriage rites.

A reception was held at the Church hall following the ceremony, after which the young couple left for a two week honeymoon trip to northern California.

Upon their return, they plan to live at 1041 W. 59th st. in Los Angeles, since they are both employed in Los Angeles.

New Officers Installed By Lomita Elementary PTA

The last meeting of the Lomita elementary PTA was held at 9:30 a.m., June 14, in the school auditorium. Mrs. Walter Talley, retiring president, presided. The flag salute was led by former student, David Groverman. Mrs. Lloyd Powell gave the inspirational message. The record book was presented to Mrs. Walter Talley by Mrs. Miguel Martinez, and the historian's report was given by Mrs. Lloyd Powell. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. William Tregarthen and George Weeks.

The gavel was presented to Mrs. William Hansen by Mrs. Talley and in return, Mrs. Hansen presented the past president's pin to Mrs. Talley.

Mrs. Robert Oster, program chairman, then presented Donald Gration and Mrs. Joseph Littlefield with their A6 classes. A very entertaining program was presented by members of the class. Mrs. Jane Rye, principal, presented the American Legion medals to Jayne Gadberry and Larry Smith.
